Creating Community Together

Community Mental Health Worker Community Support Program

About Us

Award-winning. Inspiring. Values-driven. Entrepreneurial spirit. These are some of the words that describe Stella's Circle, a leading social justice organization that works with over 1,500 people each year to help transform lives through housing, mental health, and employment.

The Position

We are currently seeking a Community Mental Health Worker to join our Community Support Program. The Community Support Program provides intensive case management and one-on-one support services to individuals with complex mental health and criminal justice issues. The goals of the Community Support Program are to reduce the number of days individuals spend in hospital and jail, improve the quality of their lives, and help them live successfully in the community.

What You'll Do

- Assisting participants of the program with daily living tasks, such as accompanying them to appointments and teaching life skills.
- Motivating individuals to become involved in their community.
- Other activities that allow individuals to achieve their fullest potential.
- Accompanying participants to medical and psychiatric appointments as required.
- Delivering medications and encouraging medication adherence.
- Providing crisis intervention and prevention.
- Providing eviction prevention support to participants.
- Providing supervision and support for group events such as visiting, community outings and Stella's Pride.

What You'll Bring

- Post-secondary degree or diploma in the human services field or equivalent combination of education, training and experience especially in the areas of mental health or therapeutic recreation.
