Creating Community Together

Social Worker Just Us Women's Centre (Contract Position for 1 year)

About Us

Award-winning. Inspiring. Values-driven. Entrepreneurial spirit. These are some of the words that describe Stella's Circle, a leading social justice organization that works with over 1,500 people each year to help transform lives through housing, mental health, and employment.

The Position

Using individual and group counselling, the Social Worker provides professional clinical services to women who have been involved with the criminal justice system or who are at risk of being involved with that system. You will provide these services at the Newfoundland and Labrador Correctional Centre for Women (NLCCW) and in the community through the Just Us Women's Centre.

What You'll Do

- Completes intake assessments to determine services that would be most helpful for the women and uses these assessments in the development of case plans.
- Provides individual counseling and facilitates therapeutic groups based on the needs of women.
- Refers women to other programs and collaborates with others as required, both within the organization and in the community, with consent from the participants.
- Regularly visits the NLCCW, on a weekly basis when possible, and offers groups and individual counseling as time permits.
- Supports the release planning efforts of women at the NLCCW.
- Networks with other community and institutional staff who support the needs of women with justice issues.
- Mediates conflict and manages crisis situations when they arise and implements appropriate action plans.
- Identifies gaps in service and advocates at the appropriate government or agency level to effect changes.
- Supervises and/or provides training opportunities for students, including Social Work, Psychology and Nursing, on occasion.
